A "very domestic person,"
To "callers" the must not be "out,"
It has such a bad appearance
For her to be goldling about;
Only to visit the parish
Every year of her life,
And attend the funerals and widdings;
"Would a minister's wife."

"Wanted, a minister's wife," To conduct the "ladies" meeting,"

Where surrow and want are rife, And look up Sunday School scholars : "Wanted, a minister's wife!"

A perfect pattern of prudence, Than all others sprinding less, But never disgracing the parich By looking slusbly in dress; Playing the organ on Sinday Would aid our landable strife To saye the society money.

But when we have found the person, We hope, by working the two,
To lift our debt and build a new church,
Then we shall know what to do; For they will be worn sud westy, Needing a change of life, And then we'll advertise: "Wanted, A minister and his wife!"

A CARRIESS THIRF,-One of our merchanta on Thâmes St., liss been robbed of his boots. Some careless fellow, lacking in the proper discrimination or failing to consider the consequences to either hunself or the man from whom he pilfers, or perhaps still worse, forgetting the theory of rights and lefts took the rights of two pairs. Neither is this quite all, for the sizes do not agree as one of the stolen articles is No 7 and the other No 10. Surely the fellow must have been hard up, and we suggest that he call upon the original owner and propose an exchange. Perhaps friend Brown would he willing to trade.

Teachers.--Our teaders who aspire to ituations as teachers in the Public Schools will give attention to the advertisement of the Superinteralent giving notice of an examination, to be had to morrow, of applicants for such positions. Many as the candidates for teachers' places always are, there must be grounds of preference, and occasional examinations of this sort are advantageous not only in elevating the standard of qualifications, but in quickening these who fail at one examination to efforts to reach the standard at a future time.

A NEWPORTER IN TEXAS, --- We have seen t letter, received by George II. Wilson, Esq., of this city from his brother who resided at Brazos and was engaged in mercantile lusmess, when the Tornado came up on the 7th, of last month, Mr. Wilson says the waves come tushing in from the Gulf of Mexico so suddenly that they had little chance to save anything. Almost every one last everything. He was able to save little except his clothing. His stock of goods valued at about $2,000 was swept away; the water was about seven feet deep ways he equal to his generosity, and his generous feeling never be less. In response to this, the foreman, A. L. Burdick, made some happy remarks, and indicated his purpose to tetire from the work of an active foreman at the close of his present term.

Tiltey, Esq., which called that gentleman forth in a poem, which showed to the word to the deer, and thop or saw it goal lady who was surely perplexed at lours to get full with which to both the pot, and in spite of all she could do or say; here the punder her charge, and one day in haying then, after repeated demands had been made for field during the week previous, she hung her dinner not out in the sun, the south side of the shed, and left it there. When dinner time came, and the farmer with his man time in and looks were ready for his moon time man, behold there was nothing to eat on the table. When the good wife was questioned, she said she would go and see if the dinner was cooked, which she very much donated though she had placed the pot in the lottest place she could find. The farmer was ashumed of himself, and set off that charger was a good provider of fact. Now there are few things that so provoke the conk as to have green or well fire, and no now would have her for being right down mad if she was expected to cook without any fact, for that is more than was expected of the children of Israel, who were required to make bricks without straw. Now much the best way is, not only to chap and get up, and saw, split and pike your wood in winter fer all the next year, but to do it early before the range keeping the waste for the life, and her when it is houled up to the done, you can at your convenience prepare it for the life, and her winds absolute this land. it is hauled up to the door, you can at your convenience prepare it for the fire, and before the spring work comes on, have it all of your way. - Zion's Herald.

Washington Evening Disputches.

A Washington special says official information from Gen. Canby's beadquarters received here to night is to the effect that a convention in South Carolina is probably called notwithstanding the apparent failure at first indicated. The returns from the ininterior show that a larger rote was polled in the upper countries than on the sea coast.

The Convention in North Carolina will probably he fixed for the early part of Jannary, and that for South Carolina summer hat ater in the same month.

A majority of the members of the Military Committee are opposed to merging the Indian Bureau into the War Department, and part of the committee will urge it being formed into a separate department, similar to the Agricultural Department.

There will be furly votes in favor of ilmeachment in the House. Since the meeting of Congress the appli-eations for electiships in the departments have largely increased. Secretary McCulloch is literally overring, especially by those desiring female eleckships.

The Appropriation Committees of both Houses are, it is said, surprised at the large estimates asked for the coming year and their Increase over those of last year. There is a disposition in both committees to reduce the figures as low as possible, to at least one-half below the estimates. The estimates of the War and navy Departments are regarded as extremely high and the appropiations will certainly be considerably below the amounts demanded.

The general disposition of the radical members of Congress is to oppese a divi-

Washington Evening Disputches.

A Washington special says official information from Gen. Camby's bradiquarters received here to night is to the effect that a convention in South Carolina is probably called not withstanding the apparent failure at first indicated. 'The returns from the ininterior show that a larger yote was polled in the upper countries than on the sea coast.

The Convention in North Carolina will probably be fixed for the early part of Janary, and that for South Carolina somewhat

A majority of the members of the Military Committee are opposed to merging the Indian Bureau into the War Department, and part of the committee will urge it being formed into a separate department, similar to the Agricultural Department.

There will be forty votes in favor of ilupeachment in the House.

Since the meeting of Congress the applications for clerkships in the departments have largely increased. Secretary McCulloch is literally overrun, especially by those desiring female clerkahips.

The Appropriation Committees of both Houses are, it is said, surprised at the large estimates asked for the coming year and their increase over those of last year. There is a disposition in both committees to reduce the figures as low as possible, to at least one-half below the estimates. The estimates of the War and pary Departments are regarded as extremely high and the apprepiations will certainly be considerably below the amounts demanded.

The general disposition of the radical members of Congress is to appear a divi-
